Using the template provided in the workshop, write a mock scientific article which should include

- Title, names of the authors with affiliation and contact e-mails.

- Abtract section, introduction etc. all the sections that are needed for the article including acknowledgement

- Some equations, tables and figures all referenced in the text.

- References with a separated .bib file